Brisbane, Queensland Oct 13, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - David Sedgwick Lobel-Mandrake and Dr. Lana Monica Lubimoff Appointed to Key Diplomatic Roles within the International Society of Diplomats

The International Society of Diplomats (ISD), a prestigious global organization dedicated to fostering international diplomacy and peacebuilding, has appointed Amb. David Sedgwick Lobel-Mandrake and Amb. Dr. Lana Monica Lubimoff to prominent positions within the organization.

David Sedgwick Lobel-Mandrake has been appointed as the Deputy Secretary General for Australia and the Oceanic Region, effective immediately for a two-year term. In this capacity, he will work closely with ISD to coordinate efforts across the region, establishing a Regional Headquarters for ISD and fostering relationships with governments, embassies, consulates, and international agencies. His mandate includes promoting the ethics of diplomacy, social justice, and peacebuilding while addressing issues related to foreign policies, politics, security, health, technology transfer, and sustainable development.

David Sedgwick Lobel-Mandrake is an accomplished legal professional and investigator with extensive experience in international law, diplomacy, and peacebuilding. He is a Certified In-House Counsel and serves as remote General Counsel for The Guardian Alliance of Washington, DC, where he oversees complex legal matters and advises on global humanitarian initiatives. As an International Criminal Investigator, David is admitted to the International Criminal Court's List of Professional Investigators, with the authorization to engage in high-profile investigations and justice efforts worldwide.

David is also a member of several international professional associations, including the Association of Corporate Counsel as Certified In-House Counsel, the International Bar Association, and the Association of Prosecuting Attorneys. These memberships reflect his broad expertise and deep commitment to upholding legal and ethical standards across global jurisdictions.

David and Dr. Lana Monica Lubimoff are NGO Delegates for an international charitable organization, where they attend high-level UN meetings contributing to the shaping of global policy. Their work in this capacity furthers their commitment to global peace, social justice, and humanitarian efforts.

Dr. Lana Monica Lubimoff has been appointed as the Country Director to Australia, where she will oversee ISD's activities in Australia, also for a two-year term. Her responsibilities include maintaining functional offices for ISD, liaising with foreign affairs ministries and key stakeholders, and supporting global initiatives related to education, food security, environmental sustainability, and gender issues.

Dr. Lana Monica Lubimoff is a registered supervisory Psychotherapist and was admitted to the International Criminal Court's List of Experts. With extensive experience in public health, psychotherapy, and humanitarian efforts, she will lead initiatives related to the well-being of marginalized communities, advancing social justice, and addressing key global challenges in Australia.

The ISD is a global organization with representatives and offices across Europe, North America, Asia, Africa, and South America. It is committed to providing a sustainable platform for diplomats to promote peace, international cooperation, and social justice, thereby advancing the development and well-being of humanity.

Both David and Lana expressed their commitment to fostering diplomatic relationships and contributing to the global mission of the ISD. Their leadership is expected to have a significant positive impact on ISD's operations in the region, as well as its contribution to international peace and development.
