Readers, librarians, and industry professionals alike will have the opportunity to delve into this captivating biography that chronicles the rise of the iconic music group,

Gladys Knight and the Pips.

Unveiling a Timeless Tale of Music and Family

Midnight Train from Georgia is a richly detailed narrative that charts the remarkable journey of Gladys Knight and the Pips, from their humble beginnings in a small Atlanta church to their celebrated induction into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame. The book captures the essence of a family's musical journey, blending historical depth with heartfelt storytelling.

The narrative unfolds as two families' lives converge at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, where their children's extraordinary musical talents begin to shine. Through the powerful voices of young cousins William Guest, Eleanor Guest, Gladys Knight, Brenda Knight, and Bubba Knight, the group initially forms The Pips gospel choir. Readers will be transported back to Atlanta's vibrant musical scene, where the future stars' passion for music is nurtured through intimate family gatherings and spirited performances.

From the back porch jam sessions to the trials and triumphs of their road to stardom, Midnight Train from Georgia is a testament to the group's resilience and the transformative power of music. With a narrative steeped in faith, perseverance, and the indelible influence of William's grandmother's lessons, the book celebrates the sweet harmonies that have touched millions of hearts over decades.

A Dual Spotlight: NYLA and London Book Fair
