Recognized for his dedication to chiropractic care and community health, Dr. B.J. Hardick is the first doctor practicing in Canada to receive Life University's prestigious Chiropractor of the Year award.

London, Ontario Oct 16, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. B.J. Hardick, a trusted chiropractor and dedicated community health advocate, has been named Chiropractor of the Year 2024 by Life University. Presented during Life University's 50th Anniversary celebrations, this award honors Dr. Hardick's contributions to chiropractic care and his leadership within the community. Dr. Hardick is the first Doctor practicing in Canada to receive this prestigious recognition. Life University is the largest single-campus chiropractic institution in the world.

"This recognition is truly humbling and a reflection of the incredible support from my patients and community," said Dr. Hardick. "I am proud to represent London, Ontario, and look forward to continuing to serve the community and contribute to the overall health and well-being of our residents."

Dr. Hardick, a second-generation chiropractor, has led Hardick Chiropractic Centre in London, Ontario since 2001. Under his leadership, the Centre has grown into a regional hub for chiropractic care, blending traditional techniques with holistic health practices. Hardick Chiropractic Centre has proudly served local families for over five decades and supported various community initiatives, including sponsorship of local athletics and health programs.

Beyond his work in patient care, Dr. Hardick is a passionate advocate for health education. He has delivered seminars locally and across North America, empowering the general public to make informed decisions about their health. As President of the Life University Alumni Association and a member of its Board of Directors, Dr. Hardick continues to contribute to the advancement of chiropractic education and professional development.

Dr. Hardick is also the author of Align Your Health, a recent publication that is part of his broader effort to promote natural health principles. His books and seminars have reached hundreds of thousands of individuals, helping them understand the benefits of chiropractic care and holistic health practices. His work has earned recognition from leaders in the health field, including Dr. Mark Hyman, who contributed the foreword to his latest book.
