

Eric G. Chang-Tung, MD, brings a wealth of experience in Cardiothoracic and Vascular / Endovascular Surgery

Delivering Decades of Experience in Thoracic Vascular and Endovascular Procedures

New York City, New York Oct 21, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - North Texas - Dr. Eric G. Chang-Tung brings with him a wealth of experience in Cardiothoracic and Vascular / Endovascular Surgery, particularly in limb salvage (amputation prevention) and vascular procedures, further strengthening the practice's commitment to exceptional patient care.

A native of Honolulu, Hawaii, Dr. Chang-Tung is a multiple board-certified surgeon specializing in cardiothoracic and vascular surgery. His extensive training includes completing two rigorous residencies and two fellowship programs. He previously served as a staff surgeon at MD Anderson Cancer Center in Houston, where he honed his skills in complex thoracic surgical interventions.

Dr. Chang-Tung's graduate level background in Engineering complements his medical expertise, with research interests focusing on graft rheology and topographic fluorescence spectroscopy. He is a strong advocate for minimally invasive surgical techniques, employing endovascular and thoracoscopic approaches to enhance patient recovery and outcomes.

In his personal life, Dr. Chang-Tung and his wife have raised two successful engineers. He emphasizes the importance of health and wellness, encouraging his patients to exercise regularly, control their blood pressure, and refrain from smoking. “Protect your heart, from it flows the springs of life,” he often reminds his patients, quoting Proverbs 4:24. Additionally, he enjoys custom electronic circuit fabrication and locksmithing, reflecting his engineering background.

Dr. Chang-Tung’s contributions to the field have not gone unnoticed; he has been recognized in D Magazine’s “Best Doctors in Dallas,” Texas Monthly’s “Texas Super Doctors,” the Consumers Research Council’s “America’s Top Surgeons,” and Texas Magazine’s “Top Surgeons.” He is committed to compassionate care and excellence in surgical care.
