

Filmmaker Harry Kazama's 'Ek Mulaqat Aisi Bhi' Selected Skip City International D-Cinema Festival

Mumbai, Maharashtra Dec 2, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Harry Kazama and Devyani Rajput, two young filmmakers from Mumbai, have made a significant mark on the international film circuit with their short film 'Ek Mulaqat Aisi Bhi' being officially selected for the prestigious Skip City International D-Cinema Festival 2023 in Japan.

As writer, director, actor, and co-producer, Harry Kazama, and co-director Devyani Rajput, have showcased their versatility and talent in this project. 'Ek Mulaqat Aisi Bhi' is a testament to their dedication and hard work in the film industry.

The Skip City International D-Cinema Festival is a renowned platform that celebrates innovative storytelling and cinematic excellence. Harry and Devyani's short film will be screened alongside other international projects, offering a unique opportunity for global audiences to experience their work.

"We are thrilled and honored to have 'Ek Mulaqat Aisi Bhi' selected for the Skip City International D-Cinema Festival," said Harry Kazama. "This film is a labor of love, and we are eager to share it with audiences worldwide."

"Devyani and I have worked tirelessly to bring this story to life, and we are grateful for this recognition," added Devyani Rajput.

Harry and Devyani's passion for filmmaking has driven them to excel in various aspects of the craft. Their selection in the Japan Film Festival is a milestone moment in their careers, and they are eager to continue pushing boundaries in the world of cinema.

Media Contact

Sim neddy

skipcityinfo@gmai.com

Source : Skip City International D-city film festival

See on IssueWire

