

Ghost Rap - New Single Release

Rory Ridley-Duff is active again as an independent musician after a 17-year break! At the age of 62, he is releasing his first single.

Sheffield, South Yorkshire Oct 25, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Ghost Rap was a demo track recorded in 1984 when Rory was studying music at Royal Holloway College (London University). 20 years later, Rory found it. His kids loved it. His family loved it. His friends loved it. So, he decided to record it again "when the time was right."

Another 20 years passed...

40 years in the making, he has now released Ghost Rap to the world.

A haunting addition to your Halloween playlist!

About Rory Ridley-Duff

Born in 1962, Rory Ridley-Duff was a self-taught keyboard player until he enrolled in a Jazz/Popular music course at the age of 18. He co-founded the progressive rock band Protos. They performed live and released one album ('One Day a New Horizon') between 1981 and 1984. In 2006, after discovering that One Day a New Horizon had a strong following in Japan, Rory released two solo albums ('Passing Decades', 'A Question of Expression') in addition to a second Protos album ('The Noble Pauper's Grave'). After a career as a research professor, he retired in 2021. He is now writing music again.

In 2024, he released his first single ('Ghost Rap') and a third album with Protos ('The Infinite Horizon').
