With a deep-rooted passion for her community and an unparalleled understanding of the local landscape, Harmony is dedicated to helping clients navigate the complexities of buying and selling properties in this beautiful region.

Since obtaining her real estate license in 2018 and joining Keller Williams in 2021, Harmony has established herself as a mentor and leader, specializing in property flipping, property management, and wholesaling off-market properties. Her keen insights into the market allow her to identify opportunities that others might overlook, making her an invaluable resource for investors and first-time homebuyers alike. Harmony also offers life insurance options as part of her comprehensive service packages, ensuring her clients receive holistic support in their financial and lifestyle choices.

A native of the Berkshires, Harmony's love for the area is evident in her professional endeavors. She thrives in a region known for its rich historical significance, vibrant cultural scene, and stunning natural beauty, from breathtaking foliage to picturesque hiking trails. Her commitment to the community is further exemplified by her venture as the Founder of the New Eatonville Berkshire Spa & Resort—the first Black female-owned hotel and spa in the Berkshires. This groundbreaking establishment reflects her vision of uplifting her community and enhancing local tourism.

Harmony's competitive spirit and commitment to personal development drive her to create opportunities for herself and others. Her published eBooks, including "Guide to DSCR Loans" and "Guide to Harmoniously Investing in Real Estate," provide further educational resources for clients, empowering them to make informed decisions.

Outside her professional life, Harmony is an avid basketball fan, particularly of the Celtics, and enjoys hiking, immersing herself in nature, exploring new culinary experiences as a foodie, listening to music, and staying active as a dedicated runner in her local running club.

As Harmony Edwards continues to lead Real Harmony Realty, her creative strategies and powerful negotiation skills redefine success in the Berkshire County real estate market. Her mission is clear: to help clients find their ideal homes while fostering community growth and revitalization.
