Bengaluru, Karnataka Dec 20, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - The Interdisciplinary Center for Advanced Research Methods (ICARM), India, in collaboration with Sevas Publishing and renowned international journals, is pleased to announce the One-Week Guided Workshop on AI-Powered Manuscript Writing and Journal Submission. The workshop, which will take place from 1st November to 10th November 2024, is designed to equip participants with the necessary skills to write, refine, and successfully submit high-quality manuscripts to top international journals.

Note: All participants are guaranteed publication upon completion of the workshop. For more details, please visit our website. <https://www.sevas.in/events.html>
Registration Link: <https://bit.ly/icarm>

This virtual workshop is part of ICARM's Lifelong Learning Initiative and aims to provide participants with comprehensive guidance on writing, refining, and submitting manuscripts to top international journals using advanced AI tools like ChatGPT. Through hands-on sessions, participants will be equipped with skills in manuscript preparation, graphic abstract creation, plagiarism checks, and journal submission, ensuring their work meets international publishing standards. Participants will also receive personalized research topics tailored to their field of interest. On Day 1, participants receive novel topics and begin manuscript writing, with submission to an international journal by Day 5. Guaranteed publication is provided, along with continuous guidance via a WhatsApp group.

With limited seats available, this workshop is ideal for academic faculty, research scholars, and final-year students from various fields, including Engineering, Science, Arts, and Medicine. Early registration is encouraged to secure your spot. For further information or to register, please contact us at +91 9986795754 or via email at info@sevas.org.in.

About ICARM

The Interdisciplinary Center for Advanced Research Methods (ICARM) was founded in 2014 by esteemed members of the Sevas Educational Society, Andhra Pradesh, India. This non-profit organization is officially recognized by the Government of India under the Andhra Pradesh Societies Registration Act of 2001. ICARM mission is to catalyze research and development initiatives within educational institutions, research facilities, and governmental organizations.

About Workshop

Are you wondering how some faculty members consistently publish papers in top international journals like Elsevier or Springer, landing high-impact scores and Q1 journal publications? Have you ever asked yourself how they master the art of writing technical English, or how they navigate the submission process to land their work in renowned journals? The answer lies not just in hard work, but in smart tools. With the advent of Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools like ChatGPT, writing and publishing a high-quality manuscript has never been easier.

The One-Week Workshop on Refereed Manuscript Writing and Journal Submission is organized by Sevas Publishing in collaboration with renowned journals and the Interdisciplinary Center for Advanced Research Methods (ICARM), India. The workshop will take place from 01 November to 08 November 2024 as an online platform. This exclusive, one-week guided workshop is designed to handhold you through every step of the journey, from selecting a research topic to submitting your manuscript to top international journals. The workshop is unique—you don't even need to bring a topic; simply fill out a Google form (will be sent immediately after registration), and based on your responses, our expert resource persons will provide you with a research topic tailored to your field. By the end of the workshop, participants will be guaranteed an international publication. This is not just another workshop; it's a roadmap to success in the academic world.

Program Schedule: <https://www.sevas.in/events.html>

International Participants: USD 90 + 28% Tax = USD 115

Who can Attend:

1. Academic Faculty: Faculty members from various fields like Engineering, Arts, Management, Law, Science, Social Studies, and Medicine are welcome to join.
2. Research Scholars and Students: Final-year students and research scholars (After coursework) who are genuinely interested in learning the publication process.
3. Dedicated Participants: Faculty who can commit to 4 hours a day for the first three days, actively participating in the sessions and revising the material on their own time.
4. Eager to Learn: Faculty who want to understand the process of publishing in reputed international journals and are ready to put in the effort and patience it takes.
5. Faculty Seeking to Improve: Those who are concerned about the pressure of academic appraisals and want to move away from shortcuts like paying for publications or relying on others to edit their manuscripts. This workshop is for those who are serious about learning how to publish with integrity and build their academic reputation.

WHO SHOULD NOT ATTEND:

Looking for Quick Fixes: Faculty who are hoping for an easy, shortcut to publication without learning the proper process.

Too Busy to Commit: Faculty who cannot dedicate the necessary time due to personal or other professional commitments, and those who are not ready to fully focus on learning the skills required for successful publication.

This workshop is designed for faculty members who are serious about developing long-term academic success through ethical and effective publication practices. If you're looking for genuine growth in your academic career, this workshop is for you. All participants are allowed to join a dedicated What's App Group for lifelong learning and lifelong guidance. Contact +91 9988795754 or email to info@sevas.org.in for more information.
