Mary Buskey: Empowering Homeownership and Community Engagement in Columbia, South Carolina

New York City, New York Oct 22, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Mary Buskey, a dedicated and experienced realtor with Keller Williams Preferred Realty, is making waves in the Columbia real estate market as she approaches retirement with a renewed focus on educating others about homeownership. With an active real estate license in South Carolina, Mary expertly guides buyers and sellers through every step of their real estate transactions, always prioritizing her client's best interests from negotiations to contract execution.

Mary's unique background in the mortgage industry began in the 1990s with Bank of America, providing her with invaluable insights into the complexities of the home-buying process. This extensive experience allows her to navigate the challenges of real estate transactions with skill and confidence, ensuring her clients feel supported and informed.

Currently balancing her role as a dual agent while working full-time for the state, Mary is passionate about helping young people recognize the significance of investing in property rather than renting. She believes that homeownership is a cornerstone of financial stability and is dedicated to imparting this knowledge to her clients.

In addition to her real estate endeavors, Mary is committed to community service, particularly in assisting vulnerable adults. She strives to equip individuals with the resources and knowledge necessary to achieve their housing goals, ensuring that everyone has the opportunity to secure safe and stable living conditions. Her dedication to community engagement reflects her belief that real estate is not just about transactions; it's about building relationships and fostering a sense of belonging.

Outside of her professional commitments, Mary enjoys spending quality time outdoors with her beloved dog, Bentley, a King Charles Cavalier. She is also an enthusiastic fan of the Dallas Cowboys, showcasing her vibrant personality and interests beyond real estate. Additionally, Mary is the author of "How I Sell Homes Others Fail To Sell," a book that shares her insights and strategies for success in the competitive real estate market.

With her extensive experience, passion for education, and commitment to community service, Mary Buskey is not just a realtor—she is a driving force for positive change in Columbia, South Carolina.
