

Samantha Vance, MMS, PA-C: A Dedicated Physician Assistant at EmergeOrtho in the Foothills Region

Expert in General Orthopedics Committed to Patient Care and Community Service

New York City, New York Oct 19, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - EmergeOrtho proudly announces the addition of Samantha Vance, MMS, PA-C, a Board Certified Physician Assistant specializing in General Orthopedics, to its esteemed medical team in the Foothills Region of North Carolina. Samantha operates from the company's offices in Hickory, Newton, and Sherrills Ford, further enhancing the practice's commitment to providing exceptional orthopedic care to the community.

With a robust team of over 350 highly-trained orthopedic specialists and advanced practice providers, EmergeOrtho is the most extensive physician-owned orthopedic practice in North Carolina. The organization's subspecialty teams deliver advanced expertise for various conditions affecting the bones, muscles, and joints, with services available across more than 60 locations statewide.

Samantha earned her Bachelor of Science in Human Nutrition, Food, and Exercise from Virginia Tech University. Her passion for healthcare led her to Lincoln Memorial University in Tennessee, where she completed her Master of Medical Science in Physician Assistant Studies. She then furthered her education by earning a Doctor of Medical Science Degree at the same institution, showcasing her commitment to lifelong learning and professional development.

In addition to her academic achievements, Samantha has a deep-rooted interest in serving others through medical missions. In 2018, she seized the opportunity to travel to Haiti with a surgical team, providing essential medical care and support to underserved populations. This experience has profoundly influenced her approach to patient care, emphasizing compassion and community involvement.

Samantha enjoys various outdoor activities outside her professional responsibilities, including hiking, fishing, and skiing. She is also an avid reader, plays basketball, and travels to explore new cultures and cuisines. Her diverse interests reflect her well-rounded character and commitment to maintaining a healthy, active lifestyle.
