

The Selfless Service of Jagadguru Kripalu Ji Maharaj: A Life of Compassion

Jagadguru Shri Kripalu Ji Maharaj was a living embodiment of compassion and selfless service.

Vrindavan, Uttar Pradesh Oct 29, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - See, people from twenty villages have gathered here and they are thinking that Jagadguru Kripalu Ji Maharaj is donating clothes to all the boys and girls of so many people, such news is spreading, but this news is not true. See, this world belongs to God, all the things in the world belong to God and we all are children of God, so everyone has a right on everyone's things. The clothes that are being given to you people, those clothes are yours only, I have no favor in this. I am just a medium. My name is service, you people accept it considering it as God's goods, bless me that I serve you people in this way again and again....

Daanmeke Kalu Yuge, he was the embodiment of these words of Manusmriti. For himself, he did not buy even a house or a room, forget even a yard of land in the entire world, rather he had donated his ancestral property (land, property, house etc.) to the trust long ago. He did not accept any post in the trust. Not only this, he donated his Jagadguru's silver throne to the Indian Defence Fund during the Indo-China war in 1965. By giving everything, he dedicated himself completely to the welfare of living beings. It is impossible to describe his infinite glory in words. While his sermons in the spiritual field are like thousands of suns in dispelling the darkness of ignorance, and the Sankirtans composed by him, soaked in the essence of Braj, are a continuous stream of devotion that immerses even the most stony heart in the essence of love. At the same time, his contribution to social work is also indescribable. In keeping with his name 'Kripalu', he showered his blessings on the living beings. He was always ready to serve the suffering. Being deeply moved by the plight of the poor and suffering people of the society, he himself held a bag and begged from the people and did important work in the field of free medical treatment and women's education. Besides this, several times a year he used to organize huge Brahm Bhojans, distribution of all materials related to daily use and studies to the children of Sadhu Purva Nirichit Mahila Arth: Schools, distribution of food grains, daily use material and financial aid programmes to the villagers, labourers, handicapped people, blind and leprosy patients and he used to donate so generously that the onlookers used to be astonished. Besides this, he never lagged behind in contributing financially to the Prime Minister's National Relief Fund and other funds during national calamities.

Cooperation in national disasters

- 26.1.2001 Gujarat earthquake 10 lakhs
- 11.1.2005 Tsunami relief 15 lakhs
- 3.9.2008 Bihar flood 2 crores
- 24.6.2013 Uttarakhand flood 1 crore 5 lakhs
- 23.9.2014 Jammu and Kashmir flood 2 crores

To ensure that these charitable works continue uninterrupted in future, you have also established the Poor Relief Fund in Jagadguru Kripalu Parishat Shyama Shyam Dham, Vrindavan and Jagadguru Kripalu Parishat Bhakti Dham, Mangarh. 'Provident Fund' has also been deposited for hospitals and educational institutions.

Conclusion:

Jagadguru Shri Kripalu Ji Maharaj was a living embodiment of compassion and selfless service. His unparalleled devotion to the welfare of humanity extended far beyond the spiritual realm, as he dedicated his entire life and resources to uplift the needy and suffering. From contributing to national relief funds during disasters to establishing free hospitals and educational institutions, he channeled his immense generosity into tangible actions. His work stands as a shining example of how one can serve society without seeking recognition, acting as a divine medium to spread love, care, and support.

Jagadguru Shri Kripalu Ji Maharaj's contributions, both spiritual and social, have left an indelible mark on countless lives, inspiring generations to carry forward his legacy of selfless service.

Media Contact

Kripalu Maharaj Books

slaymehak.2304@gmail.com

+91 8882480000

Kripalu Dham Mangarh, Kunda, District Pratapgarh Uttar Pradesh 230204, India

Source : Kripalu Maharaj Books

See on IssueWire