

1936 Original Launches in the UK, Bringing Natural Pain Relief and Skincare Solutions

Truro, Cornwall Nov 5, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - 1936 Original, an esteemed Italian brand known for its natural pain relief and skincare products, is thrilled to announce its expansion into the UK market. Now available online and through Amazon, 1936 Original offers a range of scientifically backed, natural-based products designed to provide relief and comfort to those in need.

Founders Tony and Dario, both personally acquainted with the challenges of disability and illness, have crafted a line of products that are not only effective but also safe and natural. "Bringing 1936 Original to the UK is a milestone, fulfilling our dream of making natural, effective pain relief and skincare accessible to as many people as possible," they shared.

The brand's offerings include creams, oils, and balms, each formulated to alleviate pain and enhance skin health, providing relief from conditions such as eczema and muscle pain. These products reflect Tony and Dario's commitment to creating solutions that genuinely improve the quality of life for their users. "Our personal experiences with disability and illness have driven us to create products that not only work but are also safe, natural, and backed by scientific research," added Tony and Dario.

The expansion into the UK is a significant step for 1936 Original, allowing the brand to reach a broader audience seeking natural relief options. "We're excited to partner with UK online retailers and Amazon to provide convenient access to our products, making a difference in the lives of those seeking relief and comfort," emphasised the founders.

1936 Original was founded by Tony and Dario, who have firsthand experience with the challenges their customers face. Their dedication to improving lives through natural and scientifically supported solutions has been the driving force behind the brand.
