

Alina Habba Has Emerged as Trump's White House Press Secretary

Donald Trump may now assign his friends and family to the White House, with Alina Habba appearing for the White House Press to call for a position.

Washington, D.C, District of Columbia Nov 13, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Donald Trump seems to be creating a powerful crew at the White House with his lawyer Alina Habba appearing as the frontrunner for press conference. It was reported on Tuesday that Trump's second commission will be filled with MAGA loyalists. Alina Habba is perhaps "the favorite for the role," as the 40-year-old lawyer is quite skillful at her work. But there is no official declaration for that. The Tuesday report also suggests that the press briefing of Habba and the White House must be the sign that the mother of three is ready to accept the gig.

Alina Habba is also expected to appear at the Mar-a-Lago this week where she might talk about a potential role. When Habba was asked if the rumors of the position were true or not, she added, "I leave it to the president and three people who are on my board of directors—that's Luke, Chloe, and Parker, my children," and offered a sense of suspense with "Everybody will know in time." However, Habba did not share any information exclusively that can turn into an official statement for the position. Habba also said, "I am very loyal to President Trump, I would think about it."

Even though Habba is quite good at her work, she is not on a winning streak in court for Trump. This New Jersey native was also noticed celebrating the winning of Trump and the bonding between them is strong enough to be part of the White House. The commission can include the friends from the Trump Family. The fact is also confirmed that everyone from the inner circle is aggressively lobbying for the roles at the White House as they are pushing their presence at the Mar-a-Lago. After Trump takes office in January, it will reach a conclusion.
