

Bikes For Christ Christmas Press Release

A promotional poster for a family fun ride. The background is a black and white photo of a cyclist on a road bike, wearing a jersey with 'Rust-eam' and the number '104'. The poster has a red, textured background with white dotted patterns. It features four gold bells with red bows in the corners. A QR code is in the top left with the text 'Scan the QR code for details'. The main text is in large, bold, blue letters: 'BICYCLES AND HOLIDAY BELLS FAMILY FUN RIDE DECEMBER 7TH 10 AM'. Below this, in white text, it says: 'Join Belleair Towers as they support Bikes For Christ with a family fun ride and pictures with Santa. There will also be refreshments, raffles and other prizes.' At the bottom, in white text, it says: 'Belleair Towers 1100 Ponce De Leon Blvd, Clearwater'.

Tampa, Florida Nov 5, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Bikes For Christ Gears Up for Busy Holiday Season with Community Events and Fundraisers

Bikes For Christ is preparing for another busy holiday season, as the need for bicycles becomes even greater around this time of year. A bicycle can be life-changing in many ways, and Bikes For Christ needs your help this Christmas season to continue supporting those less fortunate.

Bikes For Christ currently partners with over 100 organizations in the Tampa Bay area, providing bicycles as transportation for the clients these agencies serve. Their main focus is on Veterans overcoming hardships, underprivileged children, and individuals striving to escape poverty and challenging circumstances. Each bicycle is accompanied by a copy of the Gospel of John, reflecting the organization's mission to share Christ's love and care.

Upcoming Events

In addition to their regular holiday activities, Bikes For Christ has added a few exciting events:

- Ribbon Cutting Ceremony: On November 14th, Bikes For Christ will host a ribbon-cutting ceremony to dedicate their new building. The event, open to the public and involving local chambers, will be held at 2500 Al Simmons Road, Dover, FL, starting at 11 AM. Event link: <https://www.facebook.com/share/17vBkETCq8/>

- Bicycles and Holiday Bells Fundraising Event: On December 7th, Belleair Towers in Clearwater will host the “Bicycles and Holiday Bells” fundraiser. This family-friendly event includes a fun ride on the Pinellas Trail, pictures with Santa, refreshments, raffles, and auctions. The event runs from 10 AM to 12 PM at 1100 Ponce De Leon Blvd., Clearwater, FL 33756. Event link: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/bicycles-and-holiday-bells-tickets-1055289432099>

Recent Accolades

This year, Bikes For Christ has received several accolades, including:

- Nonprofit of the Year - Valrico FishHawk Chamber
- Finalist for Nonprofit of the Year - South Tampa Chamber of Commerce

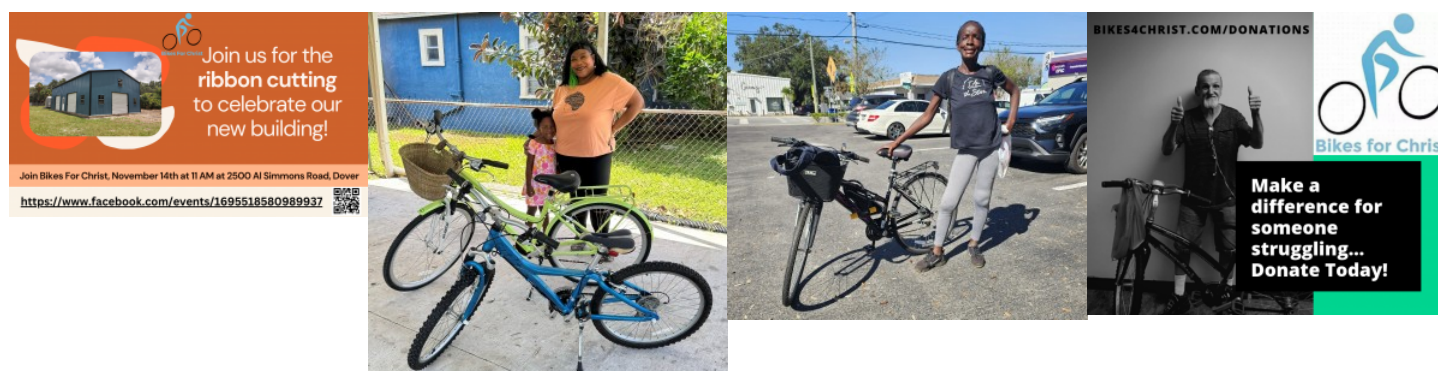

About Bikes For Christ

Bikes For Christ is a 501 (C)(3) tax-exempt organization (EIN: 82-2374095). Their mission is to provide bicycles to those in need while sharing the love of Jesus. They primarily assist veterans working to re-establish themselves, underprivileged children, and individuals striving for self-sufficiency.

www.Bikes4Christ.com

Founder and President, Pat Simmons, is available for interviews and to answer any questions.

Contact: Pat Simmons, President Pat@Bikes4Christ.com Direct: (813) 293-7488

Media Contact

Bikes For Christ

admin@Bikes4Christ.com

8135339177

2500 Al Simmons Road

Source : Bikes For Christ, Inc.

See on IssueWire