

Bruno A. Costa, MD: A Rising Star in Hospice and Palliative Medicine

From Medical School to Medical Leadership: The Journey of a Dedicated Physician Making Strides in Patient Care and Cancer Research

New York City, New York Nov 13, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - The medical community is witnessing the remarkable journey of Bruno A. Costa, MD, a dedicated physician whose commitment to medicine and patient care has already earned him numerous accolades. Dr. Costa, a graduate of the Federal University of Ceara Faculty of Medicine, completed his Medical Degree in 2020 and has since continued to excel in his field.

After graduating, Dr. Costa embarked on a rigorous residency in internal medicine at the prestigious Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai/Morningside/West, where he honed his clinical skills from 2021 to 2024. Currently, he is furthering his expertise through a fellowship in hospice and palliative medicine at The Mount Sinai Hospital's Brookdale Department of Geriatrics and Palliative Medicine, scheduled for completion in 2025. His efforts also extend to the Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, where he serves as a Clinical Research Affiliate in the Department of Medicine, Myeloma and Cellular Therapy Service.

Dr. Costa's dedication to plasma cell disorders, T-cell redirecting therapies, supportive oncology, and cancer health equity reflects his commitment to improving patient outcomes and access to care. His involvement in several esteemed professional organizations, including the American Society of Clinical Oncology, the European Society for Medical Oncology, the American Society of Hematology, the International Myeloma Society, the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine, and the American Association for Cancer Research, underscores his active participation in shaping the future of oncology.

In recognition of his exceptional contributions to the field, Dr. Costa has received numerous honors. Notably, he was inducted into the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society, Lambda Chapter, in June 2024. Additionally, he was named a Next Gen Scholar for Equity in Hospice and Palliative Medicine by the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine in September 2023. His accolades also include the Hematology Opportunities for the Next Generation of Research Scientists (HONORS) Award from the American Society of Hematology and the Resident Excellence in Clinical Teaching Award, both received in June 2023.

Outside of his professional accomplishments, Dr. Costa enjoys a vibrant personal life. He is an avid cinema enthusiast, loves exploring diverse cuisines, and cherishes traveling, particularly to his home country of Brazil. Fluent in English, Spanish, and Portuguese, Dr. Costa embodies the spirit of global citizenship in both his personal and professional endeavors.

Dr. Bruno A. Costa is undoubtedly a physician to watch as he continues to make significant strides in hospice and palliative medicine, ultimately enhancing the lives of countless patients.
