

Dr. Laith Khoury: A Compassionate Leader in Neurosurgical Care at Raleigh Neurosurgical Clinic

Expert in Spine Surgery, Neurosurgical Oncology, Epilepsy, and Cranial Nerve Surgery Brings Compassionate, Patient-Centered Care to Raleigh

New York City, New York Nov 22, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Since joining the esteemed Raleigh Neurosurgical Clinic in 2017, Dr. Laith Khoury has been a pillar of dedication, expertise, and compassion in the field of neurosurgery. Board-certified by the American Board of Neurological Surgery, Dr. Khoury specializes in spine surgery, neurosurgical oncology, epilepsy, and neuro-trauma, consistently demonstrating an unwavering commitment to treating every patient like family.

“I see patients as someone’s loved ones—a mother, father, brother, or sister. I want to provide the same level of care to them that I would give to my own family,” says Dr. Khoury, whose patient-centered philosophy defines his approach to medicine.

Dr. Khoury’s journey to becoming one of Raleigh’s most trusted neurosurgeons began at Jordan University, where he earned his medical degree in 2009. His training continued in the United States with a neurosurgery sub-internship at Brown University School of Medicine, a surgical internship at Jordan Hospital Medical Center, and a neurosurgical residency at the University of Kentucky Medical Center, where he served as Chief Resident. He further refined his skills during a fellowship in neurosurgical oncology at the MD Anderson Cancer Center, a world leader in cancer treatment and research, during his training tenure.

Dr. Khoury’s career has also been profoundly shaped by his time operating alongside Dr. Takanori Fukushima, a globally renowned skull base neurosurgeon and pioneer in modern neurosurgery. For seven years, Dr. Khoury worked closely with Dr. Fukushima, mastering his unique techniques in treating complex conditions such as trigeminal neuralgia, hemifacial spasms, vestibular schwannomas, and other brain tumors. Today, Dr. Khoury incorporates these specialized methods into his practice, bringing world-class care to his patients.

In addition to his clinical work, Dr. Khoury is an active member of multiple professional organizations, including the American Association of Neurological Surgeons, the Congress of Neurological Surgeons, and the Southern Neurosurgical Society. He also holds leadership roles within the medical community, serving on the Board of Directors at Raleigh Neurosurgical and Spine Surgery Center and the Surgical Executive Committee at WakeMed Hospital in Raleigh.

Dr. Khoury’s expertise spans a wide range of neurosurgical conditions, including brain and skull base tumors, epilepsy, traumatic brain injuries, degenerative spinal diseases, spinal tumors, spine fractures, minimally invasive and robotic surgery, Trigeminal Neuralgia and Pituitary tumors. His contributions to neurosurgical oncology research have earned over 200 citations, reflecting his dedication to advancing the field.

Beyond medicine, Dr. Khoury embraces a rich personal life. Fluent in Arabic, he is an accomplished musician who plays the guitar and drums, composing music in his spare time. He is also an avid sports enthusiast, enjoying soccer and squash, and works out regularly with a group of friends to stay active and energized. Above all, Dr. Khoury cherishes spending time with his family and traveling with them, exploring new destinations and creating lasting memories.

Dr. Khoury’s commitment to hard work, lifelong learning, and compassionate patient care has made him a trusted figure in the Raleigh community. His ability to combine cutting-edge surgical expertise with genuine empathy ensures that every patient receives the highest standard of care.
