East Africa, Kenya Jan 3, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Are you interested in a genuine spectacular exotic holiday adventure that will surely make you appreciate the beauty of Africa? Cheetah Safaris is the perfect solution. Read more about our Kenya Safaris and see how much luxury, exclusivity as well as privacy we offer you in your quest.

Find out the Big Five with Cheetah Safaris

Africa's more popular large wildlife includes the lion, leopard, elephant, rhino, and buffalo also commonly referred to as the Big Five. Our expert guides and permission to access some of the finest wildlife observation grounds will help you get the best opportunity to view these incredible animals in the wild.

The Samburu Special Five of Samburu National Reserve

Apart from the big five, Kenya is privileged to host the special five from the Samburu National Reserve. See the Beisa Oryx, the Reticulated Giraffe, the Grevy Zebra, the Somali Ostrich, and the Gerenuk. These are found in parts of northeastern Kenya only, thus a visit to Samburu is always an exciting part of your safari trip.

Unmatched Luxury and Privacy

We understand that every single client is unique and in this respect at Cheetah Safaris, we provide a wide variety of luxury and private safari options. Select from a range of private camps and lodges not only offering the best comfort, style, and recreational facilities but carefully chosen from thousands.

It is on our private guided tours that you and your guide can see and appreciate the scenic beauty and other intriguing features of Kenya's natural terrain that endow the country with stunning documentaries that cover the biochemical making up the face of the earth and the different systems of living organisms.

Endless Adventures in Kenya

With plains that stretch as far as the eyes can see, thickly forested green hills, and some of the most majestic coastlines along the Indian Ocean, there is so much to do in Kenya. With the Masai, you might enter some authentic and old villages; go for a balloon ride across the plains; or treat yourself to a luxury pampering in a spa – the possibilities are simply endless.
