

Monique Nikkole Snags First Grammy® Nomination for Blues Album, “The Fury”

Monique Nikkole has been nominated for a Grammy® for Her Contribution to a Contemporary Blues Album.

New York City, New York Nov 13, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Monique Nikkole snags her first Grammy® nomination for her Contribution to a Contemporary Blues Album. Monique Nikkole Played a Key Role in Antonio Vergara’s “The Fury” Album.

The participation of Monique Nikkole in Antonio Vergara’s acclaimed album The Fury, has been recognized with a nomination for the 2025 Grammys®, in the category of Best Contemporary Blues Album. This nomination marks a significant milestone in Monique’s career, who played a key role in creating a project that not only celebrates the roots of blues but takes them to new heights with its fusion of traditional and modern sounds.

The Fury, released on August 29, 2024, features 13 tracks that explore the richness of contemporary blues while incorporating innovation from artists around the world. With contributions from several international collaborators, the album stands out for its musical diversity and the impressive quality of its compositions. Monique was a part of this groundbreaking project, adding a unique layer of emotion and authenticity.

A Key Contribution to The Fury

The participation of Monique Nikkole in The Fury, has been crucial to the album's distinctive character. She joined a talented group of musicians and artists to create an album that goes beyond traditional blues, blending influences from various cultures and sounds. Their personal contribution highlights the depth of the project and underscores the impact of collaboration in contemporary music.

About Monique Nikkole

Monique Nikkole is a Billboard charting, award winning international singer & songwriter from Brooklyn NY. Monique has been a member of the Recording Academy since 2020. Monique released her first single "Say Yes," under her own imprint, Coco Tunes Publishing/Music Inc. which achieved commercial success, gaining airplay on stations throughout the US and gained international recognition. She was also iHeart Radio's "Artist of the Month" for three consecutive months. Monique also landed on the Reggae Charts with her follow up reggae remix of "Say Yes". Monique enjoyed continued success, with the release of her follow up single "Red Bottoms And Lingerie" featuring Lil Flip, this single earned her spot on the Billboard Urban AC charts! Monique has performed at prestigious venues throughout NY and LA, notably Nassau Coliseum, SOB's, The Javits Center for the Circle Of Sisters Expo and Eco Park. She has shared the stage with R&B and Reggae icons such as Tank, Envogue, Debra Cox, Estelle, Melanie Fiona, Sevyn Streeter, Wayne Wonder and Maxi Priest. Monique Nikkole continues to spread her love of music and is scheduled to release her anticipated new EP the top of 2025, which includes her latest social change single "Queen Of The Hustle" which was released September 27, 2024. This song is quickly becoming a women empowerment song and movement across the country!

The Impact of The Fury

The Grammy® nomination for The Fury reflects the magic that is created when artists from around the world unite with a shared vision. With contributions from renowned international artists, the album has crossed borders and reached a global audience. The inclusion of Monique Nikkole in this project highlights the power of music to connect people from different cultures and create a dialogue that transcends the musical.

This project reaffirms the place of Antonio Vergara and all of its collaborators at the forefront of contemporary blues, showing that the genre continues to evolve and resonate with new generations. The Grammy® nomination not only celebrates the individual talent of the artists but also the power of collaboration and the ability of music to transform and inspire.

Media Contact

Coco Tunes Publishing INC

cocotunespublishinginc@gmail.com

Source : Coco Tunes Publishing INC

See on IssueWire