

My Second Home Achieves 2024 NDIS Award for Excellence

Discover the excellence of My Second Home, recognised as 2024's premier choice for NDIS accommodations in Australia by the Enablement Award.

Melbourne, Victoria Nov 11, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - In the current press note, the CEO of My Second Home shared the company's excitement in receiving the 2024 Enablement Award as the "Most Outstanding NDIS Accommodation Provider." Besides, being recognised for its dedication to quality, My Second Home continues to set the standard for NDIS accommodations in Australia.

The Enablement Award, which always highlights providers that excel in delivering high-quality, safe as well as inclusive housing for people with disabilities has been an important benchmark in the NDIS community. Besides winning this award always confirms My Second Home's commitment to providing exceptional long-term NDIS accommodations in Australia. However, the CEO noted, "This award reflects our team's hard work as well as our commitment to giving every resident the quality of life they deserve. In fact, we are proud to be one of the trusted providers of NDIS accommodation."

My Second Home is also known for providing a variety of accommodation options that always successfully meet the unique needs of people with disabilities. In addition, from fully accessible living spaces to a range of amenities designed for comfort and independence, My Second Home creates environments where residents can thrive. However, as the demand for NDIS accommodations especially in Australia continues to grow, the company aims to set the bar for quality and care.

Receiving this award means a lot to the team at My Second Home. In fact, it highlights the company's dedication to making long-term NDIS accommodations throughout Australia accessible as well as supportive. Besides the CEO shared that every team member plays a role in making My Second Home a place that feels like home to their residents. "We focus on more than just housing, we focus on a supportive community where our residents feel valued and connected,” the CEO stated.

Looking ahead, My Second Home plans to expand its services to reach more communities, providing access to high-quality NDIS accommodations. In fact, with a focus on inclusivity as well as compassionate care, the company is dedicated to meeting the rising demand for long-term NDIS accommodations across Australia.

The Enablement Award is not only an achievement for My Second Home but also a motivator for the team to continue delivering outstanding NDIS support and accommodation. Besides, My Second Home is grateful for the recognition and looks forward to further building on its mission to be a trusted and compassionate provider of NDIS accommodation for individuals seeking safe, comfortable, and community-oriented housing options.

About My Second Home

My Second Home is a trusted NDIS registered provider specialising in short-term (STA/Respite) and long-term accommodations across Australia. Besides, they always provide a safe as well as welcoming space for NDIS participants, focusing on comfort, care, and community. In fact, their modern facilities include accessible living areas, indoor as well as outdoor activities, and a range of services tailored to each resident's needs. At My Second Home, they generally prioritise creating a nurturing, inclusive environment where residents feel valued and supported. Moreover, their dedicated team goes above and beyond to help each individual enjoy a fulfilling life at their own pace, surrounded by a true sense of family.

Contact Information

Email: hello@mysecondhome.com.au

Phone: (03) 9034 1330

Website: <https://mysecondhome.com.au/>

Media Contact

My Second Home

hello@mysecondhome.com.au

(03) 9034 1330

63 Second Avenue, Cockatoo, VIC 3781

Source : My Second Home

See on IssueWire