Kishangarh, Rajasthan Nov 23, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Renowned as a premier name in luxury marble and stone, RMS Stonex is setting industry benchmarks by offering an extensive range of high-quality Italian, Exotic, and Onyx marble for homeowners, architects, and interior designers. Based in Kishangarh, often called India's Marble City, RMS Stonex has established itself as a trusted source for elegance and durability in marble selection, providing superior products that cater to both residential and commercial projects.

A Legacy of Excellence and Unmatched Quality

Founded in 1978, RMS Stonex has been synonymous with quality and innovation in the stone industry. The company, led by industry expert Rahul Ladha, boasts over a decade of experience and maintains a leading reputation in the market with four showrooms and two manufacturing units in Kishangarh. By merging traditional expertise with modern technology, RMS Stonex has elevated the standards of marble sourcing, finishing, and customization, offering some of the world's most exquisite natural stones for diverse applications.

Extensive Collection for Diverse Interior Needs

RMS Stonex specializes in a broad array of marble types, including Italian Marble, Exotic Marble, and Onyx Marble, each selected to add sophistication and style to various spaces. The Italian marble range is especially sought after for its luxurious, classic appeal, while Exotic and Onyx options provide unique, vibrant colors and patterns for more personalized, high-impact designs.

The company's selection includes iconic pieces like Statuario Marble, Michelangelo Marble, and a collection of onyx varieties that bring both functionality and visual appeal to any room. This wide product range is designed to meet the evolving demands of today's architectural and interior design industries.

Customer-Centric Services for Seamless Project Completion

RMS Stonex's customer service model simplifies the marble-buying process, making it efficient and transparent. Clients benefit from a well-defined purchase journey, from initial consultation to final delivery, including site measurement, customization options, quality assurance, and dedicated after-sales support. Additionally, RMS Stonex provides transportation services across India, with clear cost estimates that ensure a streamlined experience.

Collaborations with Esteemed Clients

With a clientele that includes prestigious names like the Reliance Group, ITC Group, and the Supreme Court of India, RMS Stonex has proven its ability to meet the rigorous standards of large-scale and luxury projects. This track record further solidifies its reputation as a leading choice for architects, interior designers, and builders across the country.

Quality Assurance and Sustainability

RMS Stonex places a high priority on quality control and sustainability. Each piece of marble is carefully inspected to ensure it meets international standards, and the company's processes emphasize environmentally friendly sourcing and manufacturing practices. This commitment not only delivers high-quality products but also aligns with the sustainable values of modern architectural practices.
