

Sheryl McDonald, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

Dedicated to Making Real Estate Dreams Come True in Upstate South Carolina

New York City, New York Nov 4, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Sheryl McDonald, an accomplished realtor with Keller Williams Greenville Upstate, is making a significant impact in the local real estate market. With a passion for helping buyers and sellers navigate the complexities of real estate transactions, Sheryl has become a trusted name in the Greater Greenville area and surrounding counties. Her journey into real estate began after completing her training at the Wyatt Institute of Real Estate in the fall of Sheryl's fascination with construction and design has been a lifelong passion. She honed her skills further by taking a home decorating course in the mid-1990s, allowing her to blend her eye for aesthetics with her real estate career. Before stepping into the world of real estate, Sheryl gained invaluable experience working alongside her husband, Anthony, in their millwork and auction businesses. This hands-on experience, coupled with her interests in restoring antique clocks and vintage lighting, provided her with a unique perspective on the value and potential of properties.

Sheryl's decision to join Keller Williams stemmed from a positive experience during the sale of a commercial property and the encouragement of a family friend who recognized her potential. Her diverse background in administrative roles within medical offices and with a cotton merchant in East Central Georgia further enriches her ability to serve her clients with professionalism and expertise.

Known for her warm demeanor, Sheryl prides herself on making meaningful connections with her clients, believing that no one is a stranger for long. Her success in real estate can be attributed to her unwavering persistence in overcoming obstacles and the guidance she finds in her faith in God.

Married to Anthony for over two decades, Sheryl credits him as her inspiration for pursuing this career. Together, they operated an antique clock and watch repair shop, nurturing her appreciation for unique properties and the narratives they harbor.

In her free time, Sheryl volunteers with her local church and indulges in her passion for collecting and restoring antique clocks. She treasures the moments spent with her children and grandchildren, as well as the joy brought by Bowtie, their playful tuxedo cat.
