New York City, New York Dec 18, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Amber "Live One 5" Summers achieved her sixth win this past weekend in Cucuta, Colombia. She defeated undefeated boxer Katherine Tineo, who had a record of 1-0. With this victory, Summers now stands at 6-0, with all her wins coming by knockout.

Summers is quickly gaining recognition in the Super Flyweight division. She is currently ranked 6th in the United States and 40th globally. Originally from the Bay Area, she moved to Las Vegas to focus on boxing and to train at the famous Mayweather Boxing Club.

Summers has completed over 250 rounds of sparring against top contenders and world champions in the last three years, significantly improving her skills. "My goal next year is to have a big fight with a World Champion. I'm ready," Summers stated, showing her determination to compete against the best in her weight class. Since her professional debut on May 9, 2024, in Colombia, Summers has drawn attention for her knockout abilities and strong will. She represented Team Miami in the Team Combat League, proving her talent by taking on opponents from higher-weight classes.

As she prepares for her next match in Medellin on January 18, 2025. Summers aims to obtain her seventh victory and solidify her status as a contender for the world title. "I want to show that dreams can be achieved. I fight for those who can't," she said, highlighting her commitment to inspire others through her boxing journey.
