

Christine Kilcline, MD: A Leader in Pediatric Dermatology and Aesthetic Care in San Luis Obispo

Offering Comprehensive Services for Families in the Heart of California's Central Coast

New York City, New York Dec 3, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Coastal Dermatology + Aesthetics in San Luis Obispo, California proudly announces the continued leadership of Christine Kilcline, MD, a board-certified pediatric dermatologist and esteemed owner of the practice. With a focus on complex medical and pediatric dermatology, Dr. Kilcline provides exceptional care tailored to children, young adults, and their families. Her dedication to comprehensive dermatologic care is reflected in the wide array of services offered, catering to the unique needs of her patients.

Dr. Kilcline's profound understanding of skin diseases and their effects on children's physical and social development sets her apart in the field. As a pediatric dermatologist, she recognizes that skin conditions can significantly impact a child's well-being and self-esteem. Her compassionate approach ensures that both children and their families receive not only the highest quality medical care but also the emotional support they need during challenging times.

In addition to her expertise in pediatric dermatology, Dr. Kilcline is a skilled dermatologic surgeon with a keen artistic eye. Her training in San Francisco and San Diego has equipped her with advanced skills in dermatologic and laser surgery, allowing her to address a diverse range of dermatologic concerns for both children and adults. This combination of medical knowledge and aesthetic finesse positions Dr. Kilcline as a leader in her field.

A native of Northern California, Dr. Kilcline's journey began in Morro Bay, where childhood beach outings sparked her love for the Central Coast. She graduated from UC Davis with honors and continued her education at Albany Medical College, followed by rigorous training at UCSF in pediatrics and dermatology. Her commitment to research and education is evident through her clinical trials for psoriasis and eczema and her role as a volunteer clinical faculty member for the Department of Dermatology at UC Davis Medical Center, where she was recognized for her contributions to medical education and awarded Best Volunteer Clinical Faculty.

Dr. Kilcline is board-certified in both dermatology and pediatric dermatology, holding the prestigious title of Diplomate of the American Board of Dermatology. She actively participates in multiple professional organizations, including the Society for Pediatric Dermatology, the American Academy of Dermatology, the American Society for Dermatologic Surgery, the American Medical Association, the California Dermatology Society, the Central Coast Medical Association, the California Academy of Cosmetic Surgery, and the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society, underscoring her commitment to ongoing learning and professional development.

When she is not providing expert care, Dr. Kilcline enjoys cheering on her children's soccer teams, enjoying her husband's cooking, practicing yoga, learning to paddle board, cheering for the San Francisco Giants, and exploring the beautiful Central Coast, while still searching for seashells. Since 2006, she has contributed her expertise to the Spot Me Skin Cancer Screening Program, demonstrating her dedication to community health and education.

Coastal Dermatology + Aesthetics stands as a beacon of hope and healing for families in San Luis Obispo, and with Dr. Christine Kilcline at the helm, the practice continues to thrive as a trusted source of dermatologic care.
