

Dr. Daniel M. Hampton, MD, FAAOS: A Dedicated Orthopedic Surgeon with MedStar Health

Championing Active Lifestyles Through Expert Sports Medicine Care

New York City, New York Dec 6, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - A distinguished orthopedic surgeon specializing in sports medicine, Dr. Hampton is committed to helping patients achieve pain-free and active lives. He practices at MedStar Health: Orthopedics in Lake Ridge and Brandywine, where he leverages his extensive expertise to treat a diverse range of orthopedic conditions.

As the Assistant Team Orthopedic Surgeon for the Washington Wizards, he brings his knowledge and experience to the forefront of professional sports, providing elite care to athletes at all levels. He also serves as the Chief of Orthopedics and President of the Medical Staff at MedStar Southern Maryland Hospital Center, further enhancing his commitment to comprehensive orthopedic care. Additionally, he maintains an affiliation with MedStar Georgetown University Hospital, where he completed his residency.

Academically, Dr. Hampton's journey in medicine began in Southern California, where his passion for orthopedics was ignited by the desire to help individuals regain their functional abilities and return to the activities they love. After earning his medical degree from Georgetown University, he completed his orthopedic residency at MedStar Georgetown University Hospital and further honed his skills through a fellowship in sports medicine at Harvard's Brigham & Women's Hospital. During this fellowship, he also contributed to the education of future orthopedic surgeons, teaching Harvard's residents and medical students.

Employing a collaborative approach to patient care, he works closely with patients, therapists, and other medical professionals to design personalized treatment plans. His expertise encompasses sports-related injuries and general orthopedic issues, with a focus on complex conditions affecting the shoulder, elbow, hip, knee, and ankle. He offers a wide array of surgical options, including ligament reconstruction, arthroplasty, and minimally invasive procedures.

Outside of his medical practice, Dr. Hampton cherishes time with his wife and four young children. An avid outdoor enthusiast, he enjoys running, rock climbing, and surfing whenever he finds himself by the ocean.
