Heaven's Angels Academy, a premier childcare center committed to nurturing young minds and shaping futures, has announced its upcoming opening in early 2025. The innovative institution, currently under construction at 2272 Pacific Avenue, Long Beach 90806, will provide exceptional care and education for children from infancy through toddlerhood, with a focus on fostering lifelong learning and compassionate global citizenship.

"We are excited to announce the upcoming arrival of Heaven's Angels Academy to the Long Beach community," says Crystal Stringer, founder and director of the school. "Our vision is to create a vibrant hub of learning, collaboration, and innovation where children can blossom and parents find peace of mind.
