Julie Leslie: A Trusted Name in Pittsburgh Real Estate with Over Three Decades of Experience

New York City, New York Dec 24, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Julie Leslie, a seasoned realtor with Coldwell Banker Realty, has established herself as a leading figure in the Pittsburgh real estate market since embarking on her career as a full-time sales associate in 1989. With a remarkable track record of over 660 successful transactions totaling more than $119 million in sales, Julie has earned a reputation for her exceptional service, professionalism, and unwavering ethical standards.

A graduate of Rutgers University with a Bachelor of Arts Degree, Julie's diverse background offers her a unique perspective on the real estate landscape. Having lived in various states, including New Hampshire, New Jersey, South Carolina, and Texas, she has found her home in Pennsylvania, where she loves working in the vibrant Pittsburgh area. Julie appreciates the family-oriented community, excellent educational institutions, rich cultural offerings, and top-tier medical care that the region provides, making it an ideal setting for her clients to find their dream homes.

Julie's client-centric approach ensures personalized attention and guidance throughout the real estate process, from initial negotiations to contract execution. As a proud member of Coldwell Banker's International Sterling Society, she consistently ranks among the top 10% of agents in the Pittsburgh region and the top 18% globally.

Julie's credentials include numerous prestigious designations: Accredited Buyer's Representative, At Home with Diversity®, Certified Negotiation Expert, Certified Rental Agent, Luxury Property Specialist, Pricing Strategy Advisor, Seniors Real Estate Specialist, REALTORS® Commitment to Excellence, and e-PRO®. She is actively involved in the National, Pennsylvania, and local Realtor Associations, as well as has earned accolades like Top 7% for Client Satisfaction and the Five Star Professional Award from 2009 to 2023.

In addition to her real estate expertise, Julie brings over 20 years of teaching and training experience, having served as an in-house trainer and mentor for new associates in Coldwell Banker's South Hills office. This educational background allows her to communicate effectively with clients and colleagues, ensuring they receive comprehensive and informed guidance throughout their real estate journey.

Julie attributes her success to her exceptional patience, attentive listening, and dedication to her clients' needs. Her clients describe her as diligent, perceptive, and caring, reflecting her commitment to building long-term relationships based on trust and satisfaction.

Outside of real estate, Julie is a passionate theater and Make-A-Wish supporter, as well as an advocate for Congenital Heart Disease awareness. She is also an avid reader, a diligent gardener, and is proud to have been a finalist in the Pillsbury Bake-Off.
