Strategic partnership accelerates healthcare innovation in South Florida, combining Karma Health's technology solutions with NSU's research expertise

Vero Beach, Florida Jan 17, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - "We are thrilled to join NSU's Innovation Center as a HealthTech Partner"

— Eric Rosado

Karma Health, a leading innovator in healthcare marketing and operational solutions, is proud to announce its partnership with Nova Southeastern University's Innovation Center as their newest HealthTech Partner. This collaboration is poised to accelerate healthcare technology innovation and foster entrepreneurial growth in South Florida's rapidly expanding health tech ecosystem.

The partnership will enable Karma Health to tap into the Innovation Center's cutting-edge facilities, collaborative workspace, and robust network of industry experts. In turn, Karma Health will contribute to the center's mission of advancing technological solutions in healthcare.

"We are thrilled to join NSU's Innovation Center as a HealthTech Partner," said Eric Rosado, CEO of Karma Health. "This partnership, combined with our presence in South Florida's premier innovation hub, creates tremendous opportunities for collaboration and growth. We look forward to leveraging the center's resources and network to accelerate our mission of transforming healthcare delivery through innovative technology solutions."

The NSU Innovation Center provides a dynamic and supportive environment for technology companies to develop and scale their solutions, benefiting from NSU's deep healthcare expertise and research capabilities.

"Welcoming Karma Health as our HealthTech Partner marks an exciting new chapter at the Levan Center," said Shanine Gilpin, M.B.A., Program Manager of Programs & Membership at NSU's Innovation Center. "Together, we are set to transform healthcare innovations, making a difference for our community and beyond. The future is bright, and we are honored to be part of Karma Health's transformative journey!"

As part of the partnership, Karma Health will maintain dedicated space within the Innovation Center, allowing for direct collaboration with other industry leaders, researchers, and entrepreneurs in the healthcare technology sector.
