Beatitudo Hymn, MariDo's ninth album is a unique blend of classical precision and contemporary emotion, a testament to her unwavering spirit and dedication to her craft. Written and recorded during her recovery, the album features 78 minutes of a continuous flow of non-stop piano track evocative compositions. The piece reflects the highs and lows of her journey and those who are fighting for their lives every day on a multi-plan: physically, psychologically, emotionally and spiritually, offering listeners a raw yet uplifting glimpse of their resilience.

"Music became my sanctuary during the most challenging moments of my life; through silence, I found the music", says MariDo.

"With this album, I hope to inspire others never to give up and continue smiling. It reflects courage, faith, and love for life through hardships. One Love, Dear Souls."

MariDo's generosity extends beyond her music. She will donate $2.00 from the sale of each album Beatitudo Hymn to the St. Jude Foundation, which supports cancer research and assists children and their families. Your purchase will bring the joy of MariDo's music and make a significant contribution to this noble cause, impacting the lives of those affected by cancer. Your support is invaluable and greatly appreciated.
