

Navratana Gems: Ancient Stones with Modern Appeal

Jaipur, Rajasthan Jan 17, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Navratan gemstones are ancient stones that are known for thousands of years for their beauty, rarity and astrological significance. These gems are highly valued for their beauty and powers.

The Navratans are all unique stones but in modern times as well, these gems are more valued because of the significance they traditionally have and their powers and symbolism.

In this blog we have mentioned all these nine gemstones with the powers they have:

Modern Appeal of Navratans

In these modern times, these gems are worn both for astrological reasons and fashion reasons but mostly for their astrological powers and properties.

Many celebrities and influencers also believe in the powers of the Navratans and have been seen wearing Navratan gemstone rings and pendants, mostly rings. Like Amitabh Bachchan, the legendary actor is wearing a blue sapphire ring in the middle finger of his working hand, or Honey Singh who is wearing two rings - yellow sapphire and ruby.

Imran Hashmi is wearing four rings altogether to get the blessings of the Grahs and get good luck on his side.

Mostly it is advised to wear Navratans as rings, pendants and bracelets and so powerful people wear them as rings all the time and have stated the changes they had experienced in their life after wearing them.

In the recent Anant Ambani wedding, Isha Ambani was also seen wearing a Navratan haar in which there were all nine gemstones mounted together in one neckpiece.

Many people wear the Navgrah Navratana ring to get all the good luck and protection they can.

Powers of Navratans

Now, let's discuss the powers and properties that the Navratans hold and then you can decide which one you should wear as well:
