18th Birthday Bash

Oakland, California Dec 19, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - After three incredible years of traveling the world and sharing his love for jazz music, 17-year-old Oakland musician Ayo Brame is set to conclude his Black Boy Joy tour on his 18th birthday with shows at Yoshi's in Oakland on April 25. Ayo Brame is currently a senior at Oakland School for the Arts and plans to attend music school in New York after

Graduation

Throughout his tour, Ayo has captivated audiences across the continental United States, as well as in Puerto Rico, the Dominican Republic, Brazil, and Cuba. His unique blend of traditional jazz influences and modern improvisation has earned him critical acclaim and a dedicated fan base wherever he performs.

For the final leg of his tour, Ayo will be headlining three shows at the Havana International Jazz Festival in Cuba before embarking on a tour in Hong Kong and Shenzhen China in March. The tour will culminate in a highly anticipated finale at Yoshi's, a renowned jazz club in the heart of Oakland. Last year's show at Yoshi's sold out two shows! This year's performance promises to be a spectacular celebration of Ayo's talent and dedication to his craft.

"I am incredibly grateful for the opportunity to share my music with audiences around the world," says Ayo. "This tour has been a dream come true, and I am excited to bring it to a close with a special performance at Yoshi's in my hometown of Oakland."

Don't miss your chance to experience the talent and passion of Ayo Brame live at Yoshi's on April 25 celebrating his 18th birthday and the end of his tour! Tickets are on sale now and are expected to sell out quickly. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit Yoshi's website or Ayo's official website Ayobrame.com
