

Shane M. Miller, DVM, DIPL, ACVS: A Leader in Equine Surgery and Care

Innovative Surgeon and Community Advocate Enhances Equine Health in Northern Nevada

New York City, New York Dec 20, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Reno and Gardnerville, Nevada - Shane M. Miller, DVM, DIPL, ACVS, a renowned board-certified equine surgeon, is making significant strides in equine veterinary medicine from his home base in Northern Nevada. With a professional focus on orthopedic and soft tissue surgeries, Dr. Miller specializes in advanced techniques such as arthroscopy, laparoscopy, and regenerative medicine. His expertise also extends to lameness and performance horse medicine, where he actively addresses the needs of athletes in the equine world.

Currently, Dr. Miller serves as a surgeon and shareholder at Comstock Equine Hospital and Great Basin Equine Hospital, both of which provide comprehensive veterinary services for horses in the region. He is also the founder of Tahoe Equine, a state-of-the-art rehabilitation and conditioning center in Gardnerville, Nevada. Through these establishments, he is committed to delivering exceptional care and advancing the health and performance of horses.

A native of Minden, Nevada, Dr. Miller received his Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine from Washington State University College of Veterinary Medicine. His post-graduate training included a year-long internship at Littleton Equine Medical Center and an equine surgery residency at the prestigious University of California-Davis. Dr. Miller then returned to Littleton Equine Medical Center, where he excelled as CEO and Chief of Surgery, further honing his skills and leadership in equine surgery.

Board certified in equine surgery through the American College of Veterinary Surgeons, Dr. Miller's contributions to veterinary medicine are significant, having published numerous articles in respected journals such as the Veterinary Surgery Journal, Equine Veterinary Journal, Journal of American Veterinary Medical Association, and others. In addition, he regularly presents on surgical and lameness topics at conferences both nationally and internationally, sharing his knowledge and advocating for the advancement of equine care.

Beyond his professional achievements, Dr. Miller is deeply rooted in his community. He resides in Gardnerville with his wife, Kristin, and their three children—Peyton, Camden, and Landin. He enjoys spending quality time with his family, as well as pursuing hobbies such as cycling, participating in triathlons, and golfing in his spare time.

Dr. Shane M. Miller's dedication to equine health and his commitment to excellence in surgery make him a vital asset to the equine community in Northern Nevada and beyond.
