

Teresa Quinn, RN, BSN, CCP: A Beacon of Compassionate Care in Home Health Services

Leveraging Over Two Decades of Expertise to Transform Patient Outcomes in Philadelphia

New York City, New York Dec 30, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Teresa Quinn, RN, BSN, CCP, a seasoned patient care manager with over two decades of experience in both hospital and home health care, is making significant strides in the Philadelphia area as a Nurse Case Manager with Jefferson at Home by BAYADA. Her extensive background in diverse healthcare settings positions her as a leader in enhancing patient care and outcomes.

Armed with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Hahnemann University, Teresa's nursing journey began at the renowned MOSS Rehabilitation Center, where she specialized in brain and spinal cord injuries from 1996 to 1998. She then honed her skills as an emergency trauma and neonatal intensive care nurse at Hospital Albert Einstein until 2005. Following this, her impactful tenure at the Holy Redeemer Health System as a nurse case manager lasted over eight years, where she developed a strong foundation in patient advocacy and care coordination.

From November 2013 to March 2022, Teresa played a pivotal role as a telehealth program coordinator at the Visiting Nurse Association of Greater Philadelphia, leading a dedicated team focused on chronic care management. Her experience also includes positions as a TCC at Lankenau Hospital and a nurse coordinator at International SOS, both of which further enriched her clinical expertise.

Currently, Teresa is leveraging her comprehensive experience at Jefferson at Home by BAYADA, a leading not-for-profit home health care provider committed to delivering quality post-acute nursing and therapy for adults and seniors in the comfort of their homes. This organization is dedicated to improving the lives of Jefferson Health patients and individuals referred by other community providers, helping them manage chronic conditions or recover from surgical or medical events.

Teresa attributes her success to her unwavering commitment to patient care and the profound fulfillment she gains from helping others. Her passion for nursing and dedication to enhancing patient outcomes have earned her a reputation as a respected figure in the healthcare community.

With a focus on compassion and excellence, Teresa Quinn continues to make a substantial impact on the lives of those she serves, embodying the core values of the nursing profession. Her work not only improves individual patient experiences but also contributes to the overall health and wellness of the Philadelphia community.
