

Terry Helton, CNA: A Pillar of Dedication at Cooney Healthcare and Rehabilitation

Celebrating Over Two Decades of Commitment to Patient Care and a Clean, Welcoming Environment

New York City, New York Dec 23, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Cooney Healthcare and Rehabilitation is proud to recognize Terry Helton, CNA, for his unwavering commitment and exceptional service as a housekeeping professional within the skilled nursing home and rehabilitation facility. With over two decades of experience in healthcare and three years dedicated to maintaining a clean and welcoming environment, Terry embodies the values that define the organization.

Terry graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in History and Political Science from Indiana University Bloomington in 1982. This strong educational foundation, paired with his extensive experience as a Certified Nurse Assistant (CNA), equips him with a unique blend of skills that enhances the care provided to residents. Over the past 21 years, Terry has built a reputation for delivering compassionate care, ensuring that each individual receives the support they need in a respectful and dignified manner.

At Cooney Healthcare and Rehabilitation, Terry plays a crucial role in fostering a clean and safe environment for both residents and staff. His meticulous attention to detail and proactive approach to housekeeping not only contribute to the aesthetic appeal of the facility but also promote the health and well-being of those served. Terry understands the importance of a clean space in enhancing the quality of life for residents and works diligently to create a welcoming atmosphere.

Terry's passion for service is matched only by his desire to positively impact the lives of others. His strong work ethic and commitment to excellence make him a role model for his colleagues and a trusted friend to residents at Cooney Healthcare and Rehabilitation.
