

Borislow Insurance announces the winners of the 2024 Commitment to Excellence Awards

Borislow Insurance, in Partnership with Captivated Health, announces the winners of the 2024 Commitment to Excellence Awards and the beginning of the 2025 Commitment to Excellence Awards

Methuen, Massachusetts Feb 28, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Borislow Insurance, a leader in innovative insurance solutions, proudly announces the winners of the 2024 Commitment to Excellence Awards: Dave Cosby from Holderness School, John Bower of The Rivers School, and Laura Maria Rodriguez of Miami Country Day School. Borislow Insurance is also excited to announce the next round of awards. Taking place in 2025, the awards once again look to recognize educators who elevate educational standards, innovate teaching practices, and enhance learning environments for students. From teachers to innovators, the awards are open to all educational faculty and staff.

The 2024 winners embody the values of excellence, inclusivity, and inspiration that define Borislow Insurance's steadfast commitment to empowering the education community. We are thrilled to honor their significant contributions and persistent efforts to improve the quality of education.

Dave Cosby

As a Performing Arts Faculty member at Holderness School, Dave Cosby has redefined the music program, making music more widely accessible and instilling a profound sense of pride and engagement in his students.

John Bower

As The Rivers School's Head of Middle School, John Bower has been the driving force behind the institution's diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) initiatives, empowering both faculty and students to approach learning and community interactions with unwavering inclusivity.

Laura Maria Rodriguez

Humanities Teacher and Diversity, Belonging, and Equity Coordinator Laura Maria Rodriguez has transformed the reading culture at Miami Country Day School, fostering a deep love for reading and giving students the opportunity to see themselves reflected in literature.

"We are honored to celebrate these exceptional educators who consistently go above and beyond for their schools to enhance the quality of education," said Jennifer Borislow, Founding Principal at Borislow Insurance.

This year's awardees will also receive a one-time $2,500 grant for professional development and a commemorative plaque in recognition of their efforts and achievements.

The 2025 Commitment to Excellence Awards

After the success of the 2024 Awards, Borislow Insurance is excited to present the 2025 program. These awards will continue to honor educators and administrators for their contributions to raising educational standards, innovating teaching practices, and enhancing student learning environments.

Nominations for the award are now open! For more detailed information, updates, and nomination forms, visit the official webpage at <https://borislow.com/commitment-to-excellence>.
