

Buffalo Creamery Launches “Whipler” The World’s First Caffeinated Whipped Cream

Buffalo, New York Jan 28, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Buffalo Creamery, a leading innovator in the dairy industry, is thrilled to announce the launch of “Whipler,” the world’s first caffeinated whipped cream. Combining creamy decadence with an energizing boost, Whipler is set to revolutionize the way consumers enjoy their coffee, desserts, and more.

"Whipler will be the hottest new product in the dairy sector," said Jasmin T. Bak, Vice President of Marketing at Buffalo Creamery. "Is your sleepy cup of joe in need of a buzz? Just add a shot of Whipler. It's a game-changer for coffee lovers and dessert enthusiasts alike."

Crafted from premium ingredients and infused with a balanced amount of caffeine, Whipler adds a kick to your favorite treats without compromising on flavor or texture. Whether topping off a morning latte, an afternoon slice of pie, or a decadent hot chocolate, Whipler provides the perfect blend of creaminess and energy.

The product is available in three flavors:

- Classic Vanilla: A timeless choice for any occasion.
- Mocha Madness: Perfect for chocolate lovers looking for an extra jolt.
- Caramel Rush: A sweet and salty delight with an energizing twist.

Whipler is available starting today at major grocery retailers nationwide and online at Buffalo Creamery's official website. The company plans to expand its flavor lineup and offer limited-edition seasonal varieties in the near future.
