

Canadian Visionary Launches Atlasium 7/88 AI: The World's First Fully AI-Driven CRM

Revolutionizing Business Operations with 98% Automation and Unparalleled Efficiency

Toronto, Ontario Jan 27, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Toronto, Ontario – Serial entrepreneur and award-winning financial advisor, Blair Ryan Barton, has unveiled Atlasium 7/88 AI, a revolutionary CRM platform designed to transform the way businesses operate. Combining cutting-edge AI technology with seamless automation, Atlasium 7/88 AI automates 98% of business processes, empowering companies to scale faster, work smarter, and focus on high-value tasks that drive growth.

“Atlasium 7/88 AI isn’t just another CRM—it’s a new paradigm for how businesses manage their operations,” says Barton. “Our platform is designed to handle everything, from lead generation and customer engagement to payroll and team management, with minimal human involvement.”

The Future of Business Automation

Atlasium 7/88 AI boasts a suite of tools designed to handle every stage of the customer journey, including:

- Lead Generation & Nurturing: Automatically identify, target, and engage the right prospects across platforms, ensuring no opportunities are missed.
- Sales & Deal Closing: AI-powered tools prioritize leads and close deals with precision, leaving human involvement for only the most critical interactions.
- Operations & Payroll Management: Streamlined tools for tracking team performance and automating payroll, reducing administrative overhead.
- Custom Course Creation: Build, market, and launch interactive courses tailored to any industry, enabling businesses to diversify their offerings.

A Loyalty-Based Pricing Model

Atlasium 7/88 AI’s innovative pricing structure rewards loyalty. The standard $7,500 setup fee includes the first 90 days of service and decreases yearly:

- Year 1: $1,597/month
- Year 2: $1,397/month
- Year 3: $1,197/month
- Year 4: $1,097/month
- Year 5 and Beyond: Locked in at $1,000/month for life.

For a limited time, businesses can save $2,500 off the setup fee, reducing the cost to $5,000, by booking a consultation today.

A Vision Rooted in Innovation

The name Atlasium 7/88 AI reflects a fusion of strength, balance, and infinite possibilities. “Atlasium” symbolizes the weight of innovation, while “7/88” represents perfection, balance, and the infinite potential of AI.

Blair Ryan Barton’s journey as an award-winning financial advisor and entrepreneur underscores the credibility and ingenuity behind this groundbreaking platform. “This is more than software—it’s a game-changer for businesses that want to thrive in today’s fast-paced world,” Barton adds.
