

Founders Law's Trade Mark Practice Joins Forces with Stobbs

London, United Kingdom Jan 8, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Stobbs acquires Founders Law's Trade Mark practice, offering enhanced services to existing client base

Founders Law, a law firm that powers hyper-ambitious scale-ups, is proud to announce the acquisition of its Trade Mark practice by Stobbs, a Tier 1 firm specialising in Intellectual Property (IP). This strategic acquisition will officially take effect on 16 January 2025, uniting the strengths of both firms to deliver unparalleled value to clients.

Clients will continue to receive the exceptional service they expect, backed by the same trusted team who will integrate into Stobbs and at their current rates. This ensures a seamless experience whilst unlocking access to Stobbs' industry-leading expertise and expanded service offerings.

Seamless Transition

Clients of Founders Law's Trade Mark practice can be assured that their matters will remain uninterrupted. The experienced team they know and trust will continue to handle their trade mark matters with the same dedication and professionalism. Additionally, all existing rates will be maintained, reflecting a joint commitment to transparency and consistency throughout this transition and beyond.

Tom Bohills, Founder of Founders Law, commented:

"This acquisition and wider partnership with Stobbs represents an exciting new chapter for us. By joining forces, we can offer our clients an even more expansive service in the IP space. Stobbs can offer unmatched expertise across multiple markets, whilst maintaining the human touch and commerciality we insist on across Founders Law. They're a natural partner for us."

Enhanced Service Offering

By joining forces with Stobbs, Founders Law clients will benefit from a whole bank of new Intellectual Property services, including advanced IP portfolio management, strategic brand consultancy, and state-of-the-art IP analytics across multiple markets. Stobbs' innovative approach to intellectual property solutions ensures that clients can protect, manage, and maximise the value of their intellectual assets in a rapidly evolving landscape.

Julius Stobbs, Founder of Stobbs, said:

"We are thrilled to welcome the Founders Law team to the Stobbs family. This collaboration underscores our shared vision of providing clients with world-class legal services that are both practical and innovative."

About Founders Law

Founders Law offers is a multi-award-winning law firm offering practical and commercial first legal advice, with dedicated lawyers that speak like a human and act as an extension or embed directly within client's businesses.

Working with over 400 of the fastest scaling businesses on all continents, advising on commercial advice to employment, corporate to fundraising, specialised fintech, AI and Crypto advice with offices in London, Dubai and Sharjah.

For more details, visit www.founders-law.co.uk.

About Stobbs

Stobbs is a world-leading brand advisory firm dedicated to delivering the best holistic and strategic advice for brand owners. Their approach to Intangible Asset Management offers the right blend of a range of brand-focused capabilities – from trade marks, designs, copyright, contracts, disputes and litigation (from a legal perspective) through brand protection (investigations, anti-counterfeiting, online brand enforcement, domain management, proprietary technology), to monetisation (valuation, licensing/brand extension) and portfolio management (proprietary case and document management systems).

Stobbs commits to standing alongside brand owners, supporting them in maximising and protecting their most valuable assets – their brands. For more information, visit www.iamstobbs.com.

Media Contact

Founders Law

@founders-law.co.uk

Source : Founders Law

See on IssueWire