

Imperium, the Brain-Child of Mika Brushane is here with Brand New Enticing Tracks

Hailing from Finland, drummer Mika Brushane had gifted the world with Imperium and now new tracks, 'Together Forever' and 'Never Say Never' are here to rock.

Vantaa, Uusimaa Jan 25, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Imperium was a project that started while holding hands with the extremely talented drummer Mika Brushane of Finland. Since the origin of its journey in 2012, this project has led to several memorable tracks that have made Mika quite a name in the music industry. To make his status strong a bold once again, the drummer, lyricist, singer, and composer Mika through his project has gifted the world with two brand new tracks called 'Together Forever' and 'Never Say Never'. Both of the tracks have already created some serious buzz among his fans from all around the world.

Even though Brushane is the father of the project but he is supported by his friends and family who share a similar interest in the art form of music and the chemistry is impeccable in each and every song. The latest track 'Together Forever' is obviously a love song but the intro set a different kind of mood which is hard to see in love songs today. The high-spirited drums along with the electrifying guitar riffs which elevate the track to a different level are also found in his other newly released track 'Never Say Never'. In both of the songs, one other thing that is common and very soul-enticing is the vocals of the extremely talented individual Mika Brushane.

The Melodic Rock / AOR project, Imperium is a true testament to the various talents Brushane holds as a drummer, lyricist, keyboardist, singer, songwriter, and bassist. Apart from the new track, this project managed to gain the attention of the audience through some of the most marvelous tracks like 'The One', 'Never Surrender', 'Starlight', 'Out of This World', 'I Still Believe', 'Break the Spell' and so much more. All of these tracks are streamed on one of the major music streaming platforms like Spotify so fans can check them out, and get new updates like the artist's preparation for the next album which will be released in 2026 on his social media profiles on Facebook, Instagram, and X.
