

Madina Ismail: A Board-Certified Nurse Practitioner with Trinity Hospital

Dedicated Care Professional Committed to Healing and Community Health

New York City, New York Jan 3, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - A board-certified nurse practitioner, Madina brings a wealth of experience and a deep commitment to patient care at Trinity Hospital, collaborating with healthcare professionals to guide patients through their healing journeys during their hospital stays.

Education-wise, she earned her Bachelor of Science in Nursing and Master of Science in Advanced Nursing Practice from the University of North Dakota in Grand Forks. Her educational background, combined with her practical experience, uniquely positions her to address the complex needs of patients in a hospital setting. She completed her nurse practitioner internship at Essentia and Family Healthcare Systems, gaining invaluable clinical experience in Fargo and Minnesota. Before pursuing her master's degree, Madina served as a registered nurse at Sanford in Fargo and has most recently contributed her skills at Trinity Health.

"I have always been drawn to helping those in need, which is a reflection of my culture and upbringing," said Madina Ismail. "This natural focus on caring for the poor and sick has guided my career path, and I feel honored to continue this important work at Trinity Hospital. I am dedicated to providing compassionate, high-quality care to all my patients."

At Trinity Hospital, Madina works closely with physicians, nurses, and other healthcare professionals to ensure comprehensive care for patients. Her commitment to collaboration and patient-centered care enhances the hospital's mission to provide excellent healthcare services to the community.
