

Matt Forester, MBA, BSN, RN, CEN: A Champion of Emergency Care at AdventHealth

Dedicated Nurse Manager Combines Compassionate Leadership with Expertise in Emergency Nursing

New York City, New York Jan 20, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - AdventHealth is proud to announce the continued success and impact of Matt Forester, MBA, BSN, RN, CEN, as a Nurse Manager within the organization. With a robust educational background and a commitment to excellence in emergency care, Forester is dedicated to enhancing patient outcomes and operational efficiency in a high-stakes environment.

Pertaining to his educational pursuits, Matt earned his Master's degree in Business Administration and Management from the University of Central Florida in 2020, following his Bachelor's degree in Nursing Science from the same institution. This dual degree equips him with a unique blend of clinical and managerial expertise, allowing him to navigate the complexities of healthcare with confidence and compassion. As a Certified Emergency Nurse (CEN®), Forester showcases his specialized knowledge and commitment to the emergency nursing field, ensuring that he remains at the forefront of best practices and innovations.

In his role as Nurse Manager, he excels in key areas such as discharge planning, coordination with skilled nursing facilities, and community referrals. His focus on comprehensive discharge strategies ensures that patients are equipped with the necessary resources and support to avoid re-admission, ultimately enhancing their recovery experience. Forester's approach is rooted in collaboration, working closely with interdisciplinary teams to create tailored discharge plans that prioritize patient needs and safety.

Matt's dedication to continuous learning and professional development has been a cornerstone of his success. "Taking time to continue learning and trying new things has made me successful," he states, underscoring the importance of adaptability in the ever-evolving field of healthcare. His commitment to education not only benefits his professional growth but also inspires his team to pursue excellence in their respective roles.

A testament to his exemplary service, he was honored with the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal from the United States Marine Corps in May 2008. This recognition reflects his unwavering dedication and service-oriented mindset, qualities that he brings to AdventHealth every day.

As a leader, Matt Forester embodies the values of AdventHealth by prioritizing patient care, fostering teamwork, and promoting a culture of continuous improvement. With his extensive expertise and compassionate approach, he is poised to make a lasting impact on both patients and the healthcare community.
