Attendees will have the chance to engage with the creative team, meet featured participants, and explore the journey behind the making of the film. This mini documentary was filmed and produced by James Merkley and his team at Story Path Creative. Local podcaster Curt Bear of the Loco Experience shares his footage from the 2024 course. Solo runner, Stephen Castle, describes his epic 200-mile ultra marathon through the mountains. Race director, Mandy Mullen, will speak about her passion for running and why this race is so special.

From grueling inclines to moonlit runs, the documentary captures every moment of this extraordinary race. It's a celebration of the determination and teamwork that define the Wild West Relay experience. As runners look for new adventures, Run Wild aims to invite athletes, individuals, and society to get out of their comfort zone and choose challenge over comfort.
