

OnRiseDigital Launches WePickUpThePhone: Revolutionary AI-Assisted Voice Agents to Transform Inbound Call Handling

AI-Assisted Voice Agents Deliver 24/7 Support, Human-Like Interaction, and Operational Efficiency for Businesses Worldwide

London, United Kingdom Jan 16, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - OnRiseDigital Launches WePickUpThePhone: Revolutionary AI-Assisted Voice Agents to Transform Inbound Call Handling

WePickUpThePhone, part of the OnRiseDigital Group and a pioneer in customer engagement solutions, has unveiled its groundbreaking AI-Assisted Voice Agents. This innovative technology combines advanced artificial intelligence with natural human interaction, promising faster response times, improved customer satisfaction, and greater operational efficiency for businesses.

Designed to handle high call volumes effortlessly, the AI-Assisted Voice Agents ensure that no customer call goes unanswered. With advanced conversational AI capabilities, these agents can process complex inquiries, provide immediate resolutions, and transfer calls to human representatives when needed. Businesses can now guarantee 24/7 support while maintaining the personal touch customers expect.

“Today marks a pivotal moment for customer service innovation,” said Jon Billington, Director at OnRiseDigital LTD. “Our AI-Assisted Voice Agents are not just another technology upgrade—they represent a fundamental shift in how companies connect with their customers, offering unparalleled convenience and reliability.”

Key Features and Benefits of AI-Assisted Voice Agents
