With a mission to help buyers and sellers navigate the complexities of real estate transactions, Steven ensures that his client's best interests are represented from negotiation through to contract execution.

A proud combat veteran of the Gulf War, Steven's journey began after he graduated from Sidney High School in 1986. Enlisting in the Army, he served honorably on the front lines, showcasing his commitment to service and dedication to his country. Following his military career, Steven embarked on a successful 26-year journey as an aviation technician, where he spent 20 years in Europe—primarily in Italy—servicing both commercial and military jets. His professional experience includes working with renowned companies like Boeing in Seattle and Gulfstream in Massachusetts. Ultimately, Steven returned to Sidney to be closer to family and to carry on his father's legacy, who established Beagle Properties in 1979.

With an active real estate license in Montana, Steven is passionate about helping individuals and families find their ideal homes. His commitment to professional development is evident as he currently pursues the Graduate, REALTOR® Institute (GRI) designation. Steven attributes his success to staying informed and educated in the ever-evolving real estate market, which allows him to provide honest and expert guidance to his clients.

Steven's diverse background and unwavering commitment to service shape his approach to real estate. He emphasizes personalized, client-focused support, leveraging his unique experiences to ensure that each transaction progresses smoothly. His dedication has garnered him a reputation for excellence in the local market.

When he is not helping clients, Steven enjoys spending quality time with his three boys, often hitting the golf course during the summer months and engaging in friendly darts competitions during winter. He cherishes the close-knit, community feel of Richland County, where everyone knows one another, allowing him to build strong, lasting relationships both in the office and throughout the community.
