

TapWell Launches Express Shipping Across India for Swift Corporate Gifting Deliveries

Mumbai, Maharashtra Jan 12, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - TapWell, a leading corporate gifting company founded by Rases Changoiwala and Ashima Kothari, is proud to announce the launch of its new Express Shipping service across India. This enhancement promises to expedite corporate gifting deliveries, ensuring the timely arrival of gifts for businesses across the country.

Headquartered in Mumbai, TapWell has built a strong presence in major cities including Pune, Bangalore, Chennai, Hyderabad, and Delhi. The company offers an extensive range of over 4,000 premium gift items across 30+ categories. Their offerings include personalized gifts, luxury hampers, and more, catering to the diverse needs of businesses looking to express appreciation to clients, employees, and partners.

In addition to its wide array of products, TapWell offers a unique feature — custom company stores — allowing businesses to set up a personalized online store where their teams can select gifts and have them delivered individually to their homes, according to set budgets. This convenience makes it easier for companies to handle gifting programs while ensuring a personalized touch.

With the launch of Express Shipping, TapWell is taking its commitment to delivering superior service to the next level. Businesses across India will now benefit from faster deliveries, enhancing the overall gifting experience and ensuring that gifts reach their destinations on time.

“We are excited to roll out this service and make the gifting process even smoother for our clients,” said Rases Changoiwala, Co-founder of TapWell. “As a company that values promptness and convenience, we understand how important it is for businesses to deliver gifts on time, and our new express shipping service will ensure that every gift arrives swiftly, no matter the location.”

Ashima Kothari, Co-founder of TapWell, added, “Whether it’s for a special occasion or a seasonal gifting program, we’re confident that our express shipping service will help businesses in India create meaningful moments with their clients and employees, faster than ever before.”

The introduction of Express Shipping across India marks a significant milestone for TapWell, further establishing its position as one of the top corporate gifting companies in the country. This move comes as part of TapWell's ongoing commitment to providing businesses with high-quality gifting solutions and unmatched customer service.
