Terry "T.J." L. Dawkins Jr.: A Rising Star in Tallahassee Real Estate

New York City, New York Jan 7, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Terry "T.J." L. Dawkins Jr., a dedicated realtor with Ketcham Realty Group, is making waves in the Tallahassee real estate market. Partnering with his wife, Renee, on The Dawkins Team, T.J. has rapidly established himself as a trusted resource for buyers and sellers since entering the industry in 2022. His commitment to client education and a personalized approach ensures that every transaction is seamless and satisfying.

A native Floridian from Gadsden County, T.J. has also lived in both Leon and Jefferson County, giving him a profound understanding of the Northern Florida real estate landscape. With an active real estate license in the state, he is passionate about helping families relocate to North Florida, showcasing the unique charm and opportunities the Sunshine State has to offer. T.J. particularly enjoys working in Tallahassee, where he leverages his local knowledge to assist clients in finding affordable properties while enjoying a small-town atmosphere.

T.J. brings a wealth of experience to his real estate career, having served in law enforcement since 2014, and as a FDLE CJSTC General Instructor for law enforcement. He educates and empowers fellow officers with essential knowledge for success in their profession. Further refining his skills in attention to detail, integrity, and leadership, T.J. also plays a crucial role in the real estate community by providing continuing education courses focused on agent safety for Florida Realtors. These qualities seamlessly combine his law enforcement experience with his real estate practice, where he prioritizes professionalism, effective communication, and client satisfaction.

Together with Renee, T.J. shares a passion for hands-on projects through their personal home renovations and design in their recent real estate projects. Their creative approach, combined with strong family values, allows them to offer clients a unique blend of real estate expertise and a genuine love for transforming spaces. With their shared dedication and hard-working, play-hard personalities, The Dawkins Team is dedicated to delivering top-tier service and helping clients realize their real estate dreams and possibilities of building wealth.

T.J. attributes his success to his unwavering honesty, patience, and dedication to putting the needs of his clients and students ahead of his own. With Renee as his constant inspiration, he strives to foster lasting relationships built on trust and mutual respect.

Outside of real estate, T.J. is a devoted high school varsity football coach, cherishing quality time with his two children. He actively supports and cheers them on in all their sports activities, embodying the values of teamwork and perseverance both on and off the field.
