

A New Trilogy that Chronicles One Family's Journey Toward the American Dream

From Ireland's fight for independence to life in the U.S., PS Cleary's debut trilogy is an emotional and action-packed series that readers won't want to miss.

Dallas, Texas Mar 13, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Rising author PS Cleary has debuted with a heartfelt trilogy about one family's pursuit of love, freedom, family, and redemption. This powerful series follows the Quinn family across generations and continents as they face personal challenges, historical mayhem, and the costs of protecting what matters most.

The historical first installment of The Blood of Patriots takes several steps back to early 20th-century Ireland, where Big Jack Quinn fights for Irish independence. His decision to be a part of his nation's revolution leaves an indelible mark on his family, especially his sons, who later seek a fresh start in America. The Blood of Patriots highlights sacrifice, loyalty, chasing the American Dream, and how one generation's actions affect the next.

In the second installment, Lost and Found, retired Marine Bill Quinn seeks peace but finds himself pulled back into the chaos he thought he had left behind. When an old enemy reappears, family secrets come to light, and a daughter he never knew emerges from his past, Bill must confront danger and protect those he loves most. Lost and Found is a fast-paced story about love, loyalty, and living with the consequences of one's past.

The third installment, They Come At What You Love, returns to Bill Quinn as he struggles to protect his daughter. Old secrets resurface, putting everything he's fought for at risk. Bill's determination and grit will decide whether his family survives the challenges ahead or marks their end. Packed with suspense and emotion, They Come At What You Love is the next in this series.

All three books in the series, The Blood of Patriots, Lost and Found, and They Come At What You Love, are now available in all formats.

For readers who enjoy stories about family, love, and resilience, these installments are a must-read.
