

Aqualine brings authentic Finnish Sauna Experience to UK Homes

Aqualine, a leading wellness solutions provider in the UK, is meeting the growing demand for authentic Finnish sauna experiences with their comprehensive range of Harvia Variant traditional saunas, making premium wellness accessible to the UK.

Leeds, West Yorkshire Mar 13, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - The company's partnership with Harvia, Finland's renowned sauna manufacturer, brings a collection of twelve distinct sauna models to the UK market, catering to various space requirements and user preferences. These saunas range from compact 1150mm x 1150mm models ideal for urban homes to spacious 2380mm x 1945mm installations capable of accommodating up to ten people.

"Our Harvia Variant collection represents the perfect fusion of traditional Finnish sauna craftsmanship and modern design sensibilities," says Arnold Kitson at Aqualine. "Each model features premium elements such as soft lighting, efficient ventilation systems, and extra-thick 8mm tempered glass doors, ensuring an authentic and luxurious sauna experience."

The collection includes:

- Compact models perfect for small spaces and couples
- Mid-sized options suitable for families of 4-6 people
- Large-scale installations for commercial spaces or luxury homes
- Customizable designs with various accessories and features

Each Harvia Variant sauna is made to order, reflecting Aqualine's commitment to quality and customization. The saunas come equipped with appropriate-sized Harvia heaters, ranging from the Delta 3.6 kW for smaller spaces to more powerful options for larger installations.
