

Celebrating Excellence in Nursing: Michelle Sykes' Dedication to Patient Care at Dartmouth Health

Championing Communication, Safety, and Trust in Nursing Education

New York City, New York Feb 13, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Michelle Sykes, is a dedicated Nurse

Manager and Registered Nurse, whose unwavering commitment to enhancing patient quality of life exemplifies the core values of communication, safety, and trust integral to the institution's mission.

Since joining Dartmouth Health in 2021, Michelle has made significant strides in shaping the experiences of patients, fellow nurses, and nursing students alike. As part of New Hampshire's only academic medical center, she plays a crucial role in fostering an environment where education and patient care go hand in hand. With a strong foundation built on her previous experience as a scrub nurse at Northeastern Vermont Regional Hospital (NVRH), Michelle brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise in various surgical disciplines, including vascular surgery, orthopedics, general surgery, and ophthalmology.

Michelle's approach to nursing aligns perfectly with the organization's commitment to individualized patient care and research-driven practices. Her efforts ensure that every patient interaction reflects the highest standards of safety and quality.

Michelle is an active member of the Association of perioperative Registered Nurses (AORN), joining over 41,000 registered nurses who are devoted to advancing perioperative nursing. This involvement not only enriches her professional development but also enhances the education she provides to aspiring nurses at Dartmouth Health.

Above all, Michelle attributes her success to the invaluable guidance of mentors along the way, her ability to adapt to any situation while staying calm under pressure, and the attention to detail she developed during her time in the military. These experiences have shaped her approach to both her personal and professional life, enabling her to navigate challenges and deliver excellence in everything she does.

As a Nurse Manager and Registered Nurse, Michelle is dedicated to instilling the same values of communication and trust in the next generation of nurses, ensuring they are well-prepared to meet the demands of the healthcare environment. Her passion for teaching, patient advocacy, and her hands-on experience as a nurse continue to inspire both her colleagues and students alike.
