

Creepzz: The Rising Artist About To Blow – Don't Miss the Chance to See Him Turn Into the Next Big Thing!

Norwich, Norfolk Feb 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Independent artist Creepzz is set to take the music world by storm with the release of his highly anticipated single, “Me & You”, featuring Nigerian artist Dj Benkraft. The track, which blends light-hearted rap with reggae influences, is a celebration of love and connection, offering an uplifting message in a world often marked by negativity and division.

In just 24 hours since its release, “Me & You” racked up an impressive 10,000 views, all achieved without any promotional material. With a growing fanbase of over 46,000 subscribers on youtube, Creepzz’s music is already resonated deeply with listeners. Now, he’s looking to expand his reach further and is seeking support from influential stations and playlists to showcase this powerful track.

Creepzz, an artist born in the gritty streets of Thetford and now based in Lowestoft, has built his platform not just through music but also by tackling pressing social issues. Recently featured on BBC World News, BBC Radio Norfolk, and BBC Radio 1Xtra, Creepzz is a vocal advocate for mental health awareness and the fight against knife crime, subjects he addresses candidly in his music.

His track “Me & You” has the potential to become a game-changer. Combining upbeat melodies with heartfelt lyrics, Creepzz speaks directly to listeners with a message that love should never be discarded, even in today's troubled world.

In addition to "Me & You," Creepzz has currently released a new song called Tell Me Why which is available on Spotify, Apple music & Youtube, focusing on the urgent issue of Knife Crime this is a cause he is passionate about following the tragic stabbing of 18-year-old Joe Dix in Norwich in early 2023. He is hoping to partner with stations and influencers to share this new track, offering early access to those who show their support for "Me & You."

As an artist with a deeply personal story, Creepzz draws inspiration from overcoming significant adversity. After spending time in a secure mental health facility, he emerged stronger, determined to share his story with the world through music. His past experiences, including his involvement in anti-violence campaigns, fuel his art and drive his mission to inspire change through creativity.

The track Me & You marks a major step in Creepzz's journey as he continues to challenge the status quo of the UK hip-hop scene, drawing comparisons to heavyweights such as K Koke, Benny Banks, and Potter Payper. His raw and authentic sound is one that cannot be ignored.

Creepzz invites all stations, blogs, and media outlets to consider featuring his new track. You can listen to "Me & You" now on Spotify here:
