

Dr. Patricia Souchon: A Steadfast Commitment to Surgical Excellence at UNM Sandoval Regional Medical Center

Board-Certified Surgeon Enhances Surgical Care with Expertise and Dedication

New York City, New York Feb 19, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - UNM Sandoval Regional Medical Center proudly recognizes the invaluable contributions of Dr. Patricia Souchon, a board-certified general surgeon with over a decade of extensive experience in surgical care. As a key member of the medical staff, Dr. Souchon has been dedicated to enhancing the health of the Sandoval County community by delivering high-quality, compassionate medical services.

Dr. Souchon is currently affiliated with UNM Sandoval Regional Medical Center, where she serves not only as a surgeon but also as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Surgery at the University of New Mexico (UNM). Her dual roles exemplify the medical center's commitment to integrating community-based healthcare with educational opportunities, fostering a robust healthcare ecosystem that benefits both patients and aspiring medical professionals.

The unique open medical staff model at UNM Sandoval Regional Medical Center allows collaboration between esteemed UNM faculty physicians and skilled independent practitioners, ensuring comprehensive care tailored to the diverse needs of the community. Dr. Souchon's exemplary background aligns perfectly with this mission as she continues to provide surgical services while also mentoring the next generation of surgeons through her academic role.

Dr. Souchon earned her medical degree from the Central University of Venezuela in 2004. After relocating to the United States, she completed her internship in general surgery at the University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston, followed by a residency at the University of Nevada, Reno School of Medicine. Her rigorous training culminated in fellowship programs specializing in surgical critical care and surgery, which she completed in 2015 and 2016, respectively.

A distinguished member of the medical community, Dr. Souchon is board-certified in both surgery and surgical critical care by the American Board of Surgery, underscoring her commitment to maintaining the highest standards of surgical practice. Additionally, she holds the esteemed title of Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, a testament to her dedication to surgical excellence and ongoing professional development.

UNM Sandoval Regional Medical Center is proud to have Dr. Souchon as part of its medical staff, where her expertise and commitment to patient care make a significant impact on the health and well-being of the Sandoval County community.
